

AMENDED IN SENATE APRIL 23, 2003

SENATE BILL

No. 674

Introduced by Senator Aanestad

February 21, 2003

An act to amend Section 37700 of the Education Code, relating to schooldays.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 674, as amended, Aanestad. Four-day school week.

Existing law authorizes the Pacific Unified School District and the Leggett Valley Unified School District to operate one or more schools in their districts on a 4-day school week, so long as the district complies with specified requirements, including, instructional time requirements.

This bill would additionally authorize the Reeds Creek Elementary School District to operate one or more schools in the district on a 4-day school week only if doing so is consistent with any applicable collective bargaining agreements. ~~The bill would also authorize those schools that operate on a 4-day week to offer independent study on the fifth day of each week if a pupil attending the independent study receives and completes the amount of course work that is equivalent to the amount of course work received and completed in a classroom instructional day. The bill would provide that the independent study shall count for purposes of average daily attendance and count towards instructional time and days.~~

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no. State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 37700 of the Education Code is amended to read:

37700. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, the Pacific Unified School District, the Leggett Valley Unified School District, and the Reeds Creek Elementary School District may operate one or more schools in their respective districts on a four-day school week, if the district complies with the instructional time requirements specified in Section 37701 and the other requirements of this chapter.

(b) If a school district operates one or more schools on a four-day week pursuant to this section and the program for the school year provides less than the 180 days of instruction required under Section 46200, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for that fiscal year by the amount the school district would have received for the increase received pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 46200, as adjusted in fiscal years subsequent to the 1984–85 fiscal year. If a school district operates one or more schools on a four-day school week pursuant to this section and the program provides less than the minimum instructional minutes required under Section 46201, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall reduce the base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for that fiscal year in which the reduction occurs by the amount the school district would have received for the increase in the 1987–88 fiscal year base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 42238, as adjusted in the 1987–88 fiscal year and fiscal years thereafter.

~~(c) A school district that operates a school on a four-day week may offer independent study on the fifth day of each week if a pupil attending the independent study receives and completes the amount of course work that is equivalent to the amount of course work received and completed in a classroom instructional day. The independent study shall be counted for purposes of average daily attendance and shall be counted as instructional time and days for the purposes of Sections 37701, 46200, and 46201.~~

- 1 (c) A school district may operate a school on a four-day week
- 2 pursuant to this section only if doing so is consistent with the terms
- 3 and conditions of any applicable collective bargaining agreement.
